5. Website: Jim said he's been getting new bios. Also, if a member gets a score of 26-27 in print competition, they must send him a copy if they want it on the website. He said also that the space on the website is unlimited, so if anyone wants to add to their gallery, or start one, there is plenty of room. Best way to submit them is 2-3 attached to an e-mail. Size as same as submit to competition.
6. Scavenger Shoot: Marie said it will be held in St. Petersburg on February 16th. Wayne will pick a parking lot where participants will meet and let members know. She has a sign-up sheet today. Photos will need to be sent to Jim at Chascocompetition@gmail.com by February 20th. Luncheon will be at Niko's on February 26th. Car pools will be available.
7. F3C. Cheri said that the conference is coming up and there are flyers available, is interested. She is waiting to see when the Year End Competition will be.
8. Assignment Entries: Wayne said there is some confusion. Question - can you create a black & white image from a color image? Wayne said he will have a Board Meeting in January to discuss more specifics on what is allowable for these entries.
9. Upcoming Field Trips. Don said he was planning one for next Wednesday at Homosassa Park and had a sign-up sheet. He can get a special rate if enough people attend. He also discussed other possibilities for future trips.

Competition followed with judges Cheri Halstead, Nancy Lester and Joe Constantino. Guest Steve Zimic did critiquing.
