

Meeting notes for Oct. 2023

- Present - 17, with 2 guests as potential members.
- There are possibly some new showings coming up. Don is working on potential locations.
- Christmas lunch/dinner - Don trying to find a suitable restaurant or can perhaps have a lunch and end of year competition at the library.
- Nov. 7th meeting - there will be a guest speaker teaching on lighting techniques and there will be a model provided as well.
- There will be an extra meeting in November.
- Our membership has been increasing. Some older members have been unable to attend but still want to maintain their membership.
- A new outing is being planned - Don to follow up with details.
- Next assignment for November is Fall Colors.
- Frank will bring the club monitor for next competition. (Library not allowing us to calibrate their equipment)
- Competition, with Cheri Halstead doing critiques.
- The judges were Kathy George, Joanne Burley, and Art Verga and Noriko Buckles